ORDER #260SS574550

Thank you for your purchase!

Hi Tyler, this is your order confirmation.

While all of our sales vary in terms of shipping time due to the nature of the flash sale, there can be many factors that could potentially delay an order (weather, international/domestic shipping, receiving product from the warehouse, etc).

On average our delivery window is 10 - 14 business days. In some cases certain sales may range from 1 - 4 weeks to receive your order, however this is not the norm. While we strive to provide you with the best customer experience, our customer care team will be in touch in the event orders exceed the expected delivery timeframe.

Please note that If you have purchased from multiple brands in one order, items will be shipped separately.

All Sales are Final. We will not be able to accommodate any order modifications.
